

Meet the candidates of the upcoming election at the:

Newark Public Schools Advisory Board Candidates Forum

What is the Newark Public Schools Advisory Board?

The board is a nine-member elected body responsible for ensuring community input by:

- Reviewing school practices
- Making recommendations to the superintendent and administration

What to Look for in a Candidate*

-Does the candidate advocate for all children? If not, what does the candidate advocate for?

-What has the candidate done recently that shows an interest in public education?

-Which candidate's view on the issues do you agree with?

-Which candidate demonstrates the most knowledge on the issues?

-Which candidate has the leadership qualities you are looking for?
